

Good Luck Macbeth play submission guidelines 2016

Thank you for considering submitting a play to Good Luck Macbeth Theatre Company for the 2016 season. We at Good Luck Macbeth firmly believe in the power of stories, which is why our motto is We Tell Stories Here. This mission not only accounts for what we put forth to our audiences, but whom we work with. We are always in search of passionate storytellers, and are currently seeking submissions for our 2016 season.

There are a few things that you should know before submitting and below are a few guidelines for submissions.

- Following the guidelines will increase the likelihood, but not guarantee, the play you submitted will be chosen.
- We reserve the right to select any piece submitted but assign a director, cast and crew as we see fit. Submitting a play does not guarantee that you will get to direct or act in the production. If your submission is accepted, you will be asked to meet with members of GLM's artistic staff to discuss the production further.
- We produce all genres and styles of drama with special emphasis on new work and work that speaks to our audiences, ranging in age from 25-40.
- Plays that work best in our theatre have small casts, between 2-6 actors. However, we can accommodate up to 12 actors.
- Plays should ideally be in the 60-90 minute timeframe.
- We accept submissions in PDF format. PDF submissions may be sent to info@goodluckmacbeth.org. Please include your name and the title of the work in the subject line.
- If your submission is a musical, please include a digital copy of the soundtrack with the script.
- In the body of your submission email, in less than 500 words, tell us why your story fits into one of our many ideas.
- All submissions must be received by August 7th, 2015. Submissions after this deadline will not be processed until the following season.

Topics we are looking to explore in our 2016 Season:

Legacy – love, relationships, family, war, environment, technology. Family in the 21st Century. The U.S. Prison System. The internet and social media's effect on culture/morality/lifestyle. Healthcare - mental health issues and awareness/Senior health care and mental health care. Issues of Race and civil-rights. Corporate America, Globalization.

Thank you in advance for your submission and we look forward to reading it.
